

Session Number: 0505

Session Title: Joint Session of the Japanese College of Cardiology and the American College of Cardiology: Genetics Versus Lifestyle

Session Type: ACC International Lunch Symposium

Session Start/End Time: Monday, March 15, 2010, 12:15 PM - 13:45 PM

Location: Georgia World Congress Center, Room A404

Chair JCC Masatsugu Hori ACC Spencer B. King, III
12:15-12:17	Introduction of Session ACC Spencer B. King, III
12:17-12:25	Introduction: The Burden of Cardiovascular Disease in the Region, Membership in the Society and Initiatives Ongoing or Planned JCC Masatsugu Hori
12:25-12:40	Risk Factors and Management of Ischemic Heart Disease in Japanese Population: Genetic and Ethnic Difference JCC Speaker: Hiroshi Sato
12:40-12:55	Genomics in Ischemic Heart Disease: The New Frontier ACC Eric J. Topol
12:55-13:00	Questions and Answers
13:00-13:15	Lifestyle Change and Ischemic Heart Disease in Japanese Population: Lessons from the Epidemiological Studies JCC Hiroyuki Daida
13:15-13:30	Risk Factors and Genetics: What We've Learned from Framingham ACC Daniel Levy
13:30-13:35	Questions and Answers
13:35-13:45	Conclusion: New Insights Gained from the Japanese College of Cardiology Experience